

THE CANINE SPORTS COMPLEX PRESENTS

BUILDING CANINE SPORT RELATIONSHIP AND ENGAGEMENT WITH SARA BRUESKE

MAY 26-27, 2018

9:00am-5:00pm

(Both Days)

10 Working Spots

Unlimited Auditing

No matter the canine sport or goal, our partnership with our dogs is the most important aspect of training. Join Sara Brueske for a two-day workshop devoted to building your relationship with your dog. She will discuss how to develop engagement from your dog, trouble spot problem areas in your relationship, create a clear communication system that is catered to your specific goals as well as how to build useful play. Each team will receive one-on-one time as well as participate in group activities (accommodations can be made for nervous, shy or reactive dogs).

Workshop Location:
Canine Sports Complex

356 HERTEL AVE.
BUFFALO, NY 14207

About Sara:

Sara Brueske has been training dogs for over 15 years, and has experienced a large variety of breeds and sports during that time. Having graduated as a Karen Pryor Academy Certified Training Partner in 2011, she jumped into the professional dog training world. Sara believes in positive reinforcement not only for dogs, but for their handlers as well. Her biggest joy in training is watching a handler and dog become partners and grow as a team. Currently, she is active in the sports of disc dog, agility, mondioring and dock diving as well as being a trick dog enthusiast. Sara and her dogs demonstrate the sports of disc, agility and dock diving in over 300 dog sport shows for the public each year at Purina Farms in Grey Summit, MO and they compete nationwide. Having just recently re-entered the competition disc world, Sara and her dogs earned the titles of UpDog Freestyle Champion in 2017 and 2016 UpDog International Finals Overall Champion. Rescue is a huge part of Sara's life, she is continuously helping dogs in need by fostering, transporting and through training consultations.
